Compliance of delivery goods

It is the customer's responsibility to inspect all merchandise upon delivery, before proceeding to cutting and/or processing.
The examination is aimed at verifying the correct color, yardage and any possible defects. The customer will be considered responsible of the inspection also in the case of the merchandise being shipped to a third party/workroom.
Double-height fabrics (Sheers) will be shipped folded. To ensure the correct product quality, it is essential that the fabric be promptly opened and unrolled upon delivery. Please note that any claims will not be accepted if this procedure is not followed.
It is highly recommended that the final customer strictly follow the care instructions. Claims arising from improper maintenance will not be considered

CFA

Shipped fabrics may deviate from showroom samples and memos due to variation in dye lots. Such deviations are not in any circumstance to be considered defects. Cuttings for approval (CFA's) are strongly recommended before proceeding with shipment authorization. When requesting a CFA, please state yardage measurements and any special requirements so that appropriately sized pieces may be assigned. Please note that no return of merchandise will be accepted due to color variation if a CFA has been waived.
No CFA for orders under 3 meters.

Claims

Any claims shall be made directly to the seller, complaints made to the shipper shall not be taken into consideration. The package must be accepted with reservations and checked on delivery. If the goods are delivered to third parties, it is the responsibility of the customer to verify that the merchandise is carefully checked paying attention to length, quality and color conformity. Complaints on merchandise that have been cut and/or ready made will not be taken into consideration. Please verify the quality and the color before workmanship. Our responsibility is limited to merchandise recognized as defective and no claims for reimbursement for workmanship shall be accepted. Any items returned must receive authorization from our company. Slight variations in dye lots may be possible and these cannot be the object of claims and return of the fabric. Please send us a sample when placing an order if you must match fabrics purchased beforehand.

Any complaints should be informed in writing to our office and include images of the problem.
